

Wouldn't you like to know for sure that you have eternal life - not hope so, think so, or guess so, but KNOW so? We are told in I John 5:13 "These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God."

"For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." The Bible states in Romans 10:13 dead. The Bible states in Romans 10:13 your sins, and that He rose again from the dead. The Bible states in Romans 10:13 that He died on the cross as a sacrifice for you. The Bible states in Romans 10:13 gift is to believe that Jesus is the Son of God, All you need to do to receive this free order to spend eternity with Him. The Bible tells us "...all have sinned..." (Rom.3:23) and "...the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ..." (Rom. 6:23). Jesus died the death that you deserved. Could you have any greater friend? Because He was God's Son, He rose from the dead and is alive today--loving you and wanting to give you the gifts of companionship, purpose, and...eternal life!

Once you have trusted Him as your Savior, you will also have a companion forever! He said in Heb. 13:5 "....I will never leave thee nor forsake thee."

Jesus Christ is the eternal cure for loneliness and uselessness.

Jesus knew that, as a human, you would sin and need a perfect sacrifice for sin in Christ, God's beloved Son.

The good news is that there is Someone who will be your faithful friend and love you more than any family member ever could--not only at this present time, but throughout all eternity. He desires to be your constant companion and to fill your life with purpose. He loves you like no one has ever loved you. In fact, He loves you so much that He died for you. This wonderful friend is Jesus Christ, God's beloved Son.

Do you realize that even if you have close friends, a loving family, and a productive job, these are only temporary cures for feelings of loneliness and uselessness since they do not last forever. We cannot depend on people to fill the void in our lives.

Do you long for companionship? Are you lonely? If you have no one with whom to share your life, you probably do have these feelings. Do you feel you are not needed? Perhaps you are physically unable to do things and feel useless.
