

Written by Tim and Paula Muncy. Drawn by 6th grader Melanie Oliver. Low self-esteem is a result of seeking acceptance from others. True acceptance is gained only when the needs of the Spirit - love, security and a sense of importance - are met. These needs are satisfied only when one seeks close fellowship with the Lord. Look to God, not your peers, for acceptance. If you will accept Jesus as your Lord and Saviour send us your name and address and we will send you literature to help you grow in the grace and knowledge of Jesus Christ.
